

EUROPEAN EVALUATION SOCIETY

Stimulating, guiding and promoting the theory, practice and utilization of evaluation in Europe and beyond.

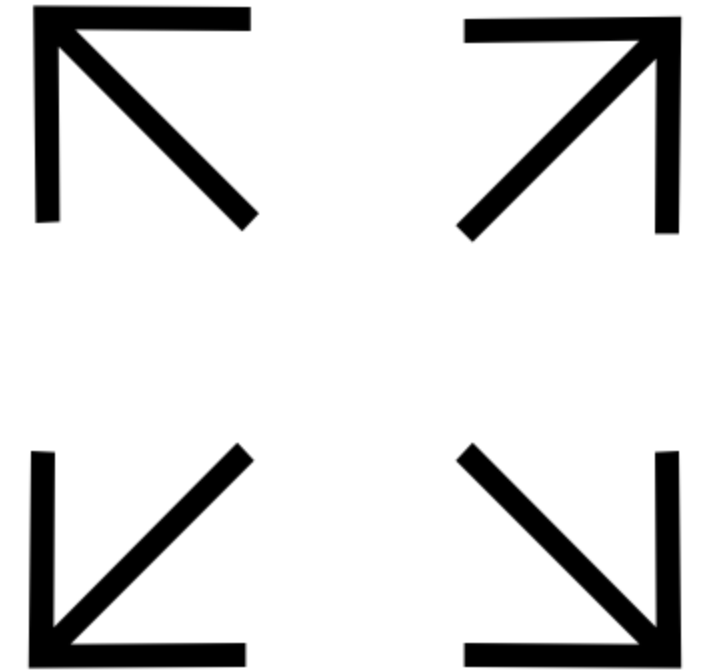

ENGAGE WITH PEERS IN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES

“The networking aspect of an umbrella association is for me the most valuable activity of EES, i.e. the opportunity to interact with evaluation practitioners from different countries to stay updated with emerging trends and better practice in old trends.”

WIDEN YOUR HORIZONS

“EES keeps me outside the organization bubble.”

ACCESS OUR ONLINE RESOURCES

“For me the most useful activity are your online resources, books, journals, SAGE collection and of course the job opportunities and tenders. The electronic newsletter keeps me abreast of good practices and contemporary ideas”

PARTICIPATE IN THE EVALUATION JOURNAL

“I derive value from the Evaluation journal because it approaches evaluation issues with a distinct perspective, different from that of AEA, AES and CES publications.”

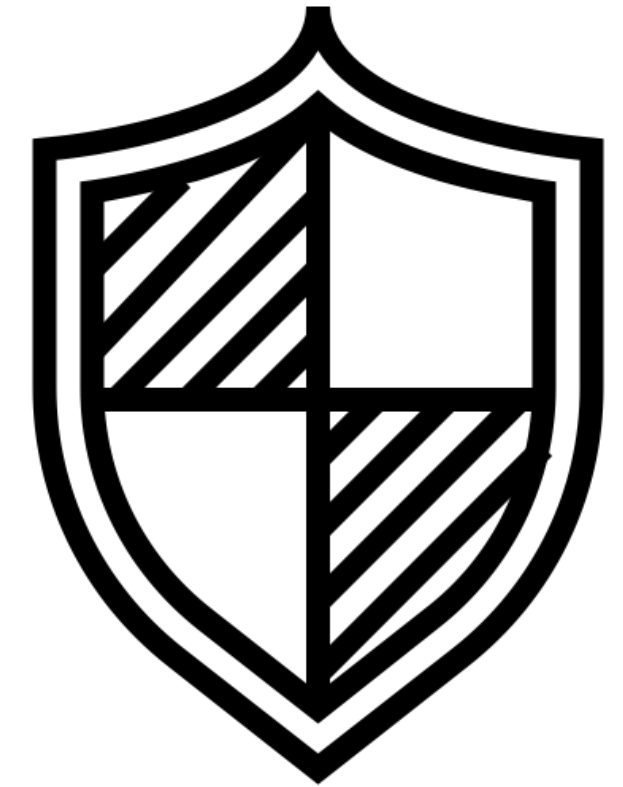

JOIN THE EVALUATOR PEER REVIEW

“I like the peer support Group. It’s the possibility to discuss important questions in a safe environment.”

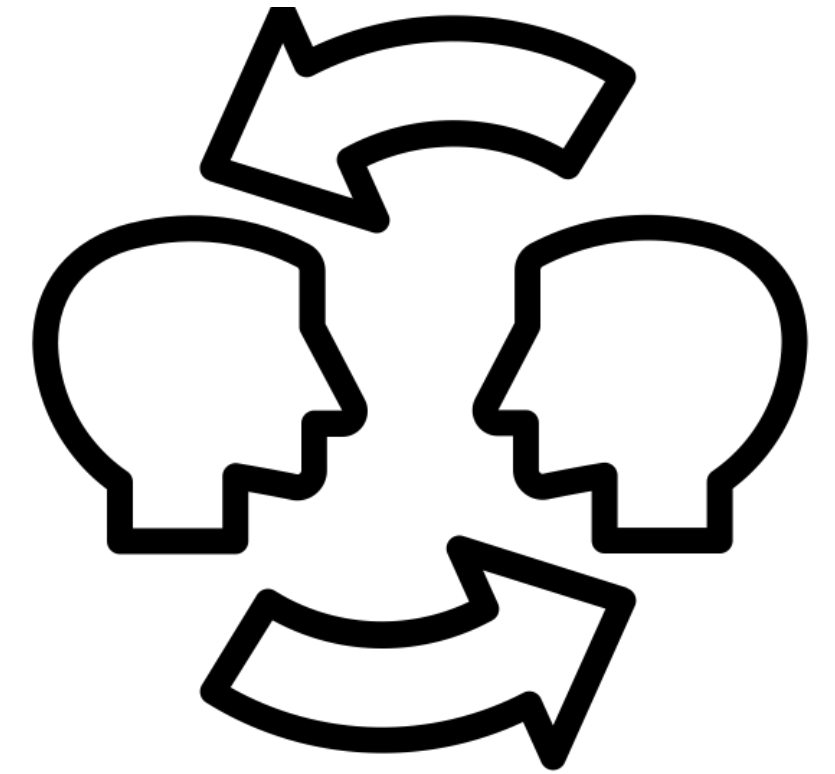

INVEST IN YOUR RELIABILITY

“EES helps members show that they are professionals.”

HELP BRING THE IDEAS AND PERSPECTIVES OF YOUNG AND EMERGING EVALUATORS

- "As an emerging evaluator, the EES mentoring program inspired me to pursuit my career goals and provided me with a guidance I couldn't find elsewhere."

ADVOCATE FOR EVALUATION IN EUROPE AND BEYOND

“I think the EES’s greatest role is on taking a broad perspective and assisting its members in seeing this. EES is a trans-national network and its European dimension adds a very important value. EES can play a prominent role as an interest group at an European Policy Level.””
